Will [NAME ACTOR / ARTIST] come to COMIC CON AMSTERDAM or can you book this person?

We will not comment on specific names. This is for both judicial and practical reasons, but mostly not to foster false hope. We are doing everything we can to provide an interesting line-up that will appeal to a broad audience.

Comic Con reserves the right to change the day and times of the photoshoot if it becomes necessary, subject to guest appearance days. Guests are subject to work and other commitments, and have the right to cancel. If this occurs, we will give you the option of changing your photosession or issue a refund. Not all guests might be appearing on all days.

Title and ownership, and all rights now and in the future, of and for the photoshoot images remain exclusively with Comic Con Europe GmbH. Photoshoot images will be available to download for personal, non commercial use after the event for a set fee in our Online Photo Library Store.

Are there costume and weapons rules?

All imitation weapons are subjected to a weapon check before entering the grounds. In order to create an unforgettable experience for all visitors, some rules for carrying fake weapons at the convention must be respected. The rules can be found here on the COSPLAY page. If your weapon does not get through a weapon check, it will be taken at the entrance, we will hold it for you and give your weapon back upon leaving the convention.

Will I be filmed or will my picture be taken as a visitor of COMIC CON AMSTERDAM?

Not every visitor will end up on a photograph or video, however it is very much possible for you to be photographed or filmed, considering the crowd of visitors and the press as well.

By entering the convention, every visitor agrees to (potentially) be photographed and filmed.

Can I take pictures and film at the event?

Photographing and filming in public areas of the event are only allowed for private purposes. Excluded individual areas are marked accordingly. Selfies with the star guests are strictly prohibited, doing this may lead to being removed from the event.

If the photo / footage in retrospect might be used commercially, a prior notification to and permission from COMIC CON EUROPE GmbH must be obtained.

Can I see and meet the stars if I don't have an autograph or photoshoot ticket? And how does it work with the tickets?

The stars will sit at their tables and sign autographs during the event. Here, you can see them from a small distance, without autograph or photoshoot tickets.

During the panels (there will be a programme with specific times for these), the guests will be on stage to answer questions from the fans. You won't need an extra ticket for this (there can be exceptions).

If you want to take a picture with a guest star, a photoshoot ticket for each guest you want to take a picture with, is mandatory. Selfies at the table or in the hall with the stars – even with the consent of the stars – are strictly prohibited and may lead to removal from the event if you fail to comply.

Can I photograph the guests when they are signing, or can I take a picture with them?

It is strictly prohibited to take selfies/pictures with the guests. It's important all visitors will have an opportunity to meet their favorite guests, which it's why it's necessary to stop photography in order to grant the guests more time to sign autographs for all the visitors who want one. We don't want people to go home disappointed at the end of the day because there was no more time for their autograph.

Keep in mind that even though some guests are prepared to take pictures with their fans, there can be many reasons for why they won't pose for pictures at their signing tables. If this is the case, please respect their wishes. There will be signs present to tell you where photography is prohibited.

Do I need to buy a separate entry ticket if I already have a photoshoot and/or autograph ticket?

Yes, of course. The photoshoot tickets are ONLY valid for a photoshoot and the autograph tickets are ONLY valid for an autograph, they DO NOT include an entry fee or ticket. You can purchase either a day-, weekend- or VIP-ticket.

Each star will have a specific time frame per day for his or her photoshoot. The specific times will be published online and posted at the event itself. If you miss the shoot, there will be no substitute or refund.

The photoshoot tickets must be purchased either online or at the information desk during the event.

Please note: Due to time constraints, all tickets will be limited per day. Should the tickets sell out in the presale, it will not be possible to buy them at the event. It is recommended to buy your photoshoot tickets online in presale.

When I buy a photoshoot ticket, can my friend join me in the photo?

No. A photoshoot ticket is per person. If you would like to take a picture with your friend and a guest, then both of you will need your own photoshoot ticket. In that case, two pictures will be taken, and you will get both pictures.
